

Cal Grant Maximum Tuition Award for Students Attending Private Nonprofit Institutions
Proposed Trailer Bill Changes for May Revision (RN 18 08280):

SECTION 1. Section 66796.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

66749.6. (a)(1) A private nonprofit postsecondary educational institution that chooses to accept an associate degree for transfer does not guarantee admission to a particular campus of program.

(2) A private nonprofit postsecondary educational institution that chooses to accept an associate degree for transfer, shall guarantee admission with junior status to a community college student who meets all of the requirements of Section 66746, with admission to a program or major and concentration, as applicable, that meets either of the following:

(A) Is similar to the student's community college transfer model curriculum-aligned associate degree for transfer, as determined by the private nonprofit postsecondary educational institution to which the student is admitted.

(B) May be completed with not more than 68 additional semester units for majors at institutions requiring 128 semester units or not more than 102 quarter units at institutions requiring 192 quarter units for a degree. A private nonprofit postsecondary institution admitting a community college student with an associate degree for transfer may require the student to take additional courses at the institution as long as the student is not required to take any more than the additional semester units or quarter units specified in this subparagraph. High-unit majors and additional campus-specific courses or requirements that an institution requires for graduation by all undergraduate students, and that would not otherwise be considered an educational requirement at a public institution, shall be exempt from this subparagraph.

(b) Community college transfer units shall not be applicable to upper division requirements at a private nonprofit postsecondary educational institution, unless agreed upon by the local academic senates of the private postsecondary educational institutions and the California Community Colleges, and the transferred units do not exceed the 68 semester units or 102 quarter units, pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(c) A private nonprofit postsecondary educational institution shall not require students transferring pursuant to this article to repeat courses that are similar to those taken at the community college that counted toward the associate degree for transfer.

(d) Discussions concerning the associate degree for transfer, including the development of new majors, shall include participation by the association representing the largest number of private nonprofit postsecondary educational institutions.

SECTION 2. Section 66749.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

66749.7. The Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges and those private nonprofit postsecondary educational institutions that choose to commit to accept a student with an associate degree for transfer, in consultation with students, faculty, student service administrators, the State Department of Education, the California Education Round Table, and other key stakeholders, shall develop a student-centered communication and marketing strategy in order to increase the visibility of the associate degree for transfer pathway for all students in California that may include, but is not necessarily limited to, all of the following:

(a) Outreach to high schools relative to the associate degree for transfer pathway that build upon existing high school outreach programs and activities performed by the California State University and the University of California.

- (b) Pathway information that may be prominently displayed in all community college counseling offices and transfer centers.
- (c) Pathway information that may be provided to all first-year community college students developing an education plan to aid them in making informed educational choices.
- (d) Targeted outreach on the pathway that may be provided to first-year community college students through campus orientations and student support service programs offered by the campus that may include, but are not necessarily limited to, Federal TRIO Programs, First-Generation Experience, MESA, and Puente.
- (e) Information on the pathway that may be prominently displayed in community college course catalogs.
- (f) Information on the pathway that may be prominently displayed on the Internet Web sites or each community college and private nonprofit postsecondary educational institution that choose to commit to accept a student with an associate degree for transfer, and on the California Colleges Internet Web site, californiacolleges.edu.
