LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Bill No. _____
as introduced, _____
General Subject: California Law Revision Commission: Penal Code.

(1) Existing law establishes the California Law Revision Commission to, among other things, examine the law for defects or anachronisms in the law, or for antiquated or inequitable rules of law, and to recommend necessary reforms. Existing law requires the commission to study any topic that the Legislature, by concurrent resolution or statute, refers to the commission.

This bill would, commencing January 1, 2020, establish within the commission the Committee on Revision of the Penal Code, consisting of 7 members, who would be appointed by the Legislature and the Governor, as specified. The bill would require the committee to study and make recommendations on revision of the Penal Code to achieve certain objectives, including, among others, simplifying and rationalizing the substance of criminal law and establishing alternatives to incarceration, as specified.

The bill would apply various provisions concerning the commission to the committee, including those relating to access to research materials, cooperation with other entities, and reporting requirements.

(2) Existing law prohibits a commission employee or member appointed by the Governor from advocating the passage or defeat of legislation concerning matters assigned to the commission or from appearing before any committee of the Legislature as to those matters unless requested to do so by the committee or its chairperson.

This bill would instead authorize a commission employee or member to appear and testify at any legislative committee hearing on legislation to implement a commission recommendation for the purpose of explaining the recommendation, if the employee or member does not advocate the passage or defeat of the legislation.

The bill would also make changes to other provisions concerning the commission, including those relating to quorum requirements, compensation of members, and the appointment of an executive director.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.
