Economic Update

Job growth has been uneven in California, but payrolls have added 24,400 jobs on average June through August. California's merchandise exports during the first seven months of this year totaled $97.6 billion, a 5.9-percent increase from the same months last year. U.S. real GDP grew at a 3.0-percent annual rate in the second quarter, revised up from the initial estimate of 2.6 percent.

- California's unemployment rate rose by 0.1 percentage point to 4.8 percent in July, and another 0.3 percentage point in August to 5.1 percent. These were the first increases since September 2010, and the first back-to-back increases since the end of 2009. The U.S. unemployment rate fell by 0.1 percentage point to 4.3 percent before rising to 4.4 percent in August. California's labor force participation rate was unchanged in July and August, remaining at the historic low of 61.9 percent, while the U.S. rate stayed at 62.9 percent in August.
- California nonfarm payrolls lost 8,200 jobs in August, following a gain of 84,500 jobs in July and a loss of 3,200 in June. This brings the year-to-date monthly job growth to 17,500, well below the almost 30,000 job gains per month in 2016. Year-over-year job growth has also slowed to closer to U.S. levels of around 1.5 percent.

- Over the three months ending in August, nine of the 11 major industry sectors gained jobs on average. The largest monthly average job gains were in educational and health services (6,400), construction (4,900), and other services (4,100). Other sectors that gained jobs on average include professional and business services (2,800), trade, transportation, and utilities (2,600), leisure and hospitality (1,900), financial activities (1,300), government (500), and manufacturing (300). Information lost 300 jobs on average while mining and logging lost 100.

BUILDING ACTIVITY

- California residential permits totaled 120,000 units on a seasonally adjusted annualized basis in July, the fifth consecutive month with more than 100,000 permits issued. While down 13 percent from the previous month, it was up 38.6 percent from the prior year. The July permits include 58,000 for single-family housing and 62,000 for multifamily housing. Residential permits averaged 110,000 in the first seven months of 2017 compared to 98,000 for the same period last year.
- The annualized value of nonresidential permits in July was $24.3 billion. For the first seven months of 2017, nonresidential valuation was down 2.2 percent from the same period last year.

REAL ESTATE

- California existing home sales totaled 427,630 in August on a seasonally adjusted annualized rate, up 1.5 percent from July and 1.3 percent from August 2016. The statewide median home price in August was $565,330, the highest in a decade, up 2.9 percent from July and 7.2 percent from August 2016. All California counties have a median price above $200,000, and only 10 of 58 counties have a median price lower or equal to the U.S. median price of $258,300.
